Objective

I am a motivated entry-level truck driver with a strong passion for transit that comes from a background in which my grandfather and father were carters. My eagerness to learn quickly in a professional transport environment is a result of the commitment to the safety of all passengers and carriage on the road. Thus, I am always ready to contribute my reliability, punctuality, and positive attitude while growing my driving skills.

My ultimate goal is to serve my country by offering goods and services that come in the form of conveyance.
